As an Anti-Bilious Medicine

They are incomparable. They stimulate TOR-PID LIVER, invigorate the NERVOUS SYS-TEM, and give tone to the DIGESTIVE OR-GANS, creating perfect digestion and thorough assimilation of food. They exert a powerful influence on the KIDNEYS and LIVER, and through these organs remove all impurities, thus vitalizing the tissues of the body and causing a healthy condition of the system.

AS AN ANTI-MALARIAL REMEDY

They have no equal; and as a result act as a preventive and cure for Bilious, Remittent, Intermittent, Typhoid Fevers, and Fever and Ague. Upon the healthy action of the Stomach depends, almost wholly, the health of the human race.

DYSPEPSIA IS THE BANE of the present generation. It is for the cure of this disease and its attendants, SICK HEAD-ACHE, NERVOUSNESS, DESPONDENCY, CONSTIPATION, PILES, &c., that

TUTT'S PILLS have gained such a wide spread reputation. No remedy has ever been discovered that acts so speedily and gently on the digetive organs, giving them tone and vigor to assimilate food. This being accomplished, of course the NERVOUS SYSTEM IS BRACED, THE BRAIN IS NOURISHED, AND THE BODY ROBUST.

Being composed of the juices of plants extracted by powerful chemical agencies, and prepared in a concentrated form, they are guaranteed free from anything that can injure the most delicate A noted chemist, who has analyzed them, says: "THERE IS MORE VIRTUE IN ONE OF TUTT'S PILLS THAN CAN BE FOUND IN A PINT OF ANY OTHER."

We, therefore, say to the afflicted try this remedy fairly; it will not harm you; you have nothing to lose, but will surely gain a vigorous body, pure blood, strong nerves and a cheerful Principal Office, 35 MURRY ST., N. YORK. PRICE 25 CENTS.

Fickle Woman.

About a year ago there was living in a pleasant quarter of Paris the family of a gentleman connected with the Detroit Custom House, one of the members of which was a most accomplished young lady. They had for a neighbor Monsieur Dureuil, a young French gentleman of good birth, ample fortune, and varied accomplishments. He was, and is, endowed with an exceptionally fine baritone voice, and a refined presence. His manners are of the court-liest, and he is manly, frank, ingenuous, and thoroughly well bred. He made the family's acquaintance, became a regular and intimate visitor and is said to have bestowed upon the young lady a sincere and undivided affection. Instead of pressing his suit with the young lady, he asked the good office of her mother. Madame listened graciously, and the narrative runs that she impressed the ardent suitor with the ex-alted position which her husband, "the Goverheld in Michigan. To unite his fortunes with those of the daughter of a Governor was desirable in a social way, and, having affection to urge him on, he was eager for the nuntials. After a time the young lady came home to Detroit. Her mother and Monsieur Dureuil secoured Paris for a wedding outfit, among the articles composing which were the richest plate mirrors, the most delicate of chica, and a hundred other things, for all of which he paid, in addition to the stock of family linen which monsieur had intended, and which is described as something the bare eight of which would arouse a tempest of enthusiasm in the coldest female breast. These articles were carefully packed and shipped to Detroit, and will soon followed by the brilliant and handsome owner. who expected sonn after his arrival to complete

Soon after his arrival, by virtue of his breedog and accomplishments, he gained the confidence of the highest social circle in the city, one to which access is proverbially difficu't .-When the astouding discovery was made a few days since that the young lady whom he supposed he was to marry was going East to be wedded to an Englishman whom she met for the first ime on the steamer when on the voyage home from Paris, he was naturally much dis tressed, but made no trouble. He quietly let his friends know his determination to dispose of the beautiful things he had brought from Paris, excepting the family linen, and to day they are distributed among some of the best families in Ditroit, as gifts in a few instances, and sold at merely nominal figures in others. He will leave in a few days for Algiers, where he has large his happiness at the marriage altar.

AMERICAN FURNITURE IN ENGLAND .-- The London Times says: "A very considerable trade has been gradually diverted from Eogland of late years, in the shape of machinemade doors, window sashes, and other joinery, which are now being furnished to this country, and to our Australian colonies in very large numbers. The trade first commenced in 1877, when 2,800 doors were shipped to Great Britain, an amount which last year was increased to 45,000. The New York makers, with whom this trade originated, are complaining that California is taking it away from them, very much to the detriment of the Eastern States. In fact, the bulk of the Australian demand is now supplied by California, which last month sent over 27,000 doors, while the New Yorkers had only orders for 5,000. As much of the pine wood used in England comes trom the States, the diversion of a manufac-ture of so much importance is a double loss to this country.' Avoid the very appearance of heat by having your stoves stored and kept until winter at Stansbury's, corner of King and Columbus st. Call and see their new revolving Top Cook
